

YOUR ITALIAN WEDDING

Tell me a little about your wedding...

Thank you so much for getting in touch with Lake Garda Weddings by Dulcie Butterfly. I'm so pleased you're considering me to help you create your wedding in Italy.

Before we arrange an initial chat, I'd love to get to know a little more about you, your plans and the wedding you are dreaming of.

Don't worry if you haven't worked everything out yet - many couples come to me right at the beginning of their planning journey. There are no right or wrong answers. This simply gives me a little insight into what you are looking for, what is important to you and where you are with your plans.

As I personally look after every wedding and only take on a small number each year, I like to make sure I have a good understanding of your plans before we arrange a consultation. This means that when we do speak, I can make our conversation much more useful and personal to you.

Relaxed, personal and completely yours.
